Retirement

It is with both sadness and gratitude that we announce the retirement of Dr Tully at the end of March, after 30 years of dedicated service at Northlands GP surgery.

Dr Tully's journey in medicine began after school in Omagh and medical training at Queen's University, Belfast. She trained for general practice in North Yorkshire before making her way to Calne, via Bermuda, where she joined Northlands at Easter in 1994.

Throughout the years, Dr Tully has provided compassionate care to countless patients, earning the respect and admiration of colleagues and the community alike. Her warmth, kindness, and dedication will be deeply missed.

As she embarks on this well-earned retirement, we wish her a future filled with joy, relaxation, and all the things she loves.

Thank you, Dr Tully, for everything you have done for Northlands and for the many lives you have touched.
